

UNYIELDING

UNCONQUERED

UNBOUND

III MIG Monthly Magazine
July 2025

ROMINI REPORT

A photograph of two Marines in camouflage uniforms. The Marine on the left is wearing a hood and goggles, looking forward. The Marine on the right is looking upwards and to the right with a slight smile. They are positioned inside or next to a vehicle, with mechanical parts visible in the foreground and background.

About III MIG

The III Marine Expeditionary Force Information Group plans, coordinates, integrates, and employs information capabilities and effects in support of the III Marine Expeditionary Force and regional allies and partners. III MIG operates out of Camp Hansen, Okinawa.

Editor's Note

At COMMSTRAT, we're proud to bring you this edition of the Ronin Report—a monthly snapshot of the dedication, resilience, and achievements of the Marines of III MIG. From tackling complex cyber challenges to providing critical support in the Indo-Pacific, our Marines continue to exemplify the highest standards of the Corps. Be sure to click the DVIDS links throughout the issue for more photos, stories, and exclusive content that bring their missions to life.

Table of Contents

Camp Hansen Townhall	4
Swim Qual	5
Expedient Antennas	6
JTAC Training	7
CQB Training	8
CAS Training	9
Beach Bash	10
Change of Command	11

Camp Hansen Townhall

Photos by Cpl. Michael Taggart

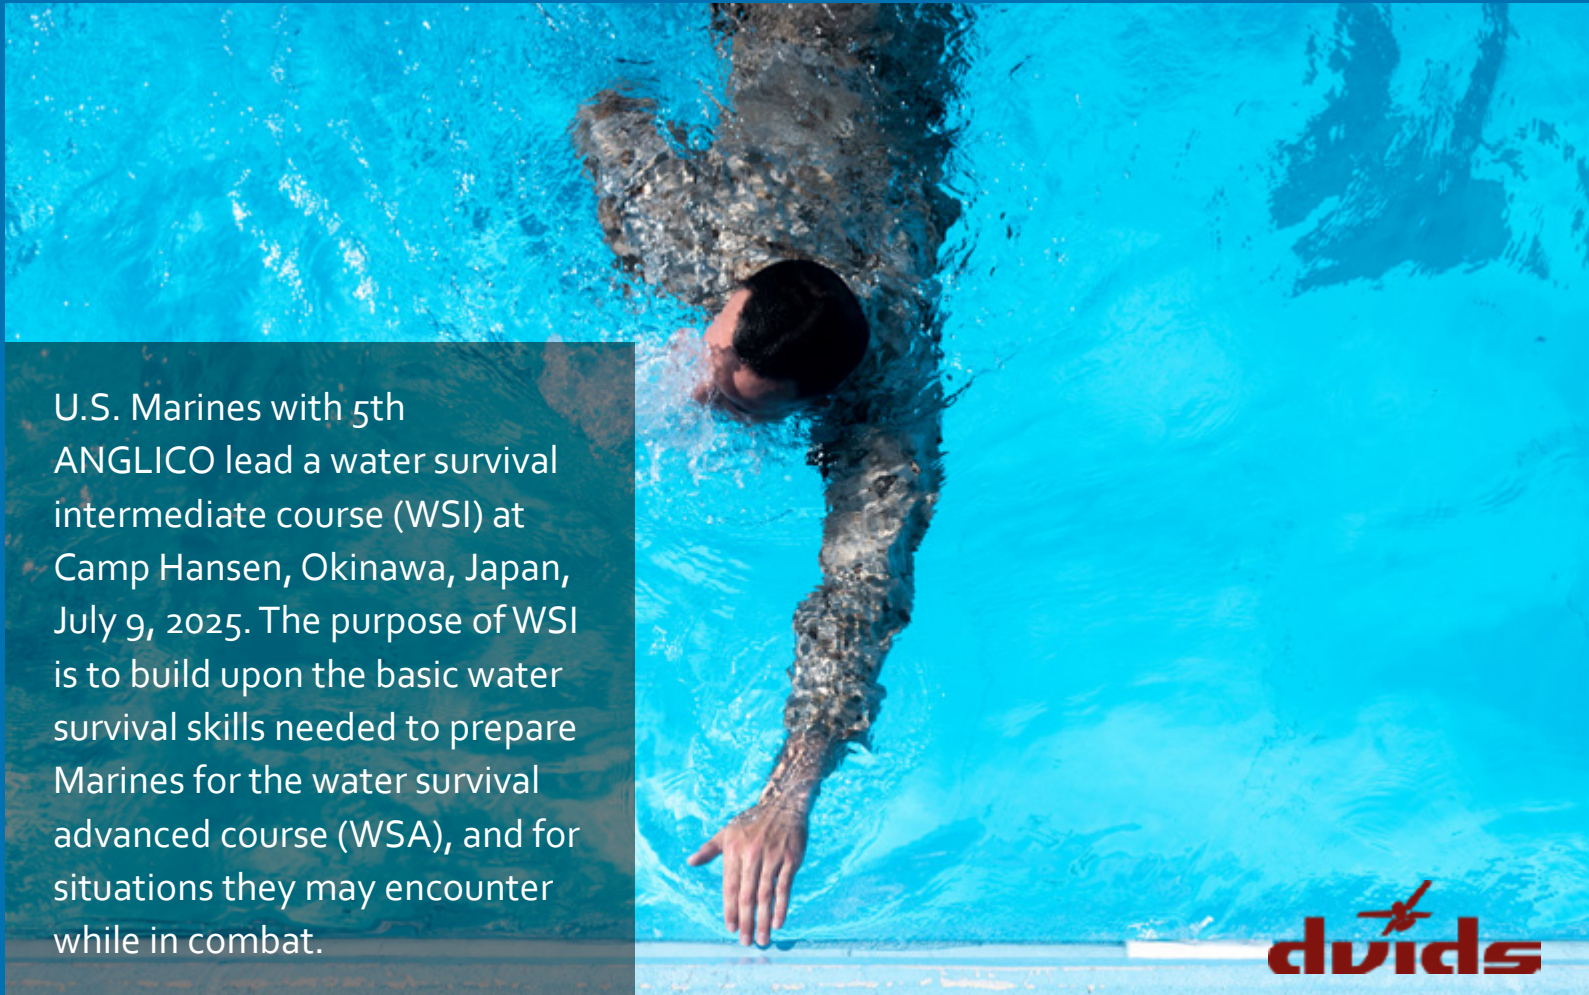

U.S. Marine Corps Sgt. Maj. Christopher J. Adams, the sergeant major of III Marine Expeditionary Force, speaks to non-commissioned officers at Camp Hansen Okinawa, Japan, July 8, 2025. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the current and future state of III MEF as well as address the concerns of Marines at the installation.

5th ANGLICO Swim Qual

Photos by Cpl. Michael Taggart

U.S. Marines with 5th ANGLICO lead a water survival intermediate course (WSI) at Camp Hansen, Okinawa, Japan, July 9, 2025. The purpose of WSI is to build upon the basic water survival skills needed to prepare Marines for the water survival advanced course (WSA), and for situations they may encounter while in combat.

dvids

5th ANGLICO Crafts Expedient Antennas

Photos by Cpl. Bridgette Rodriguez

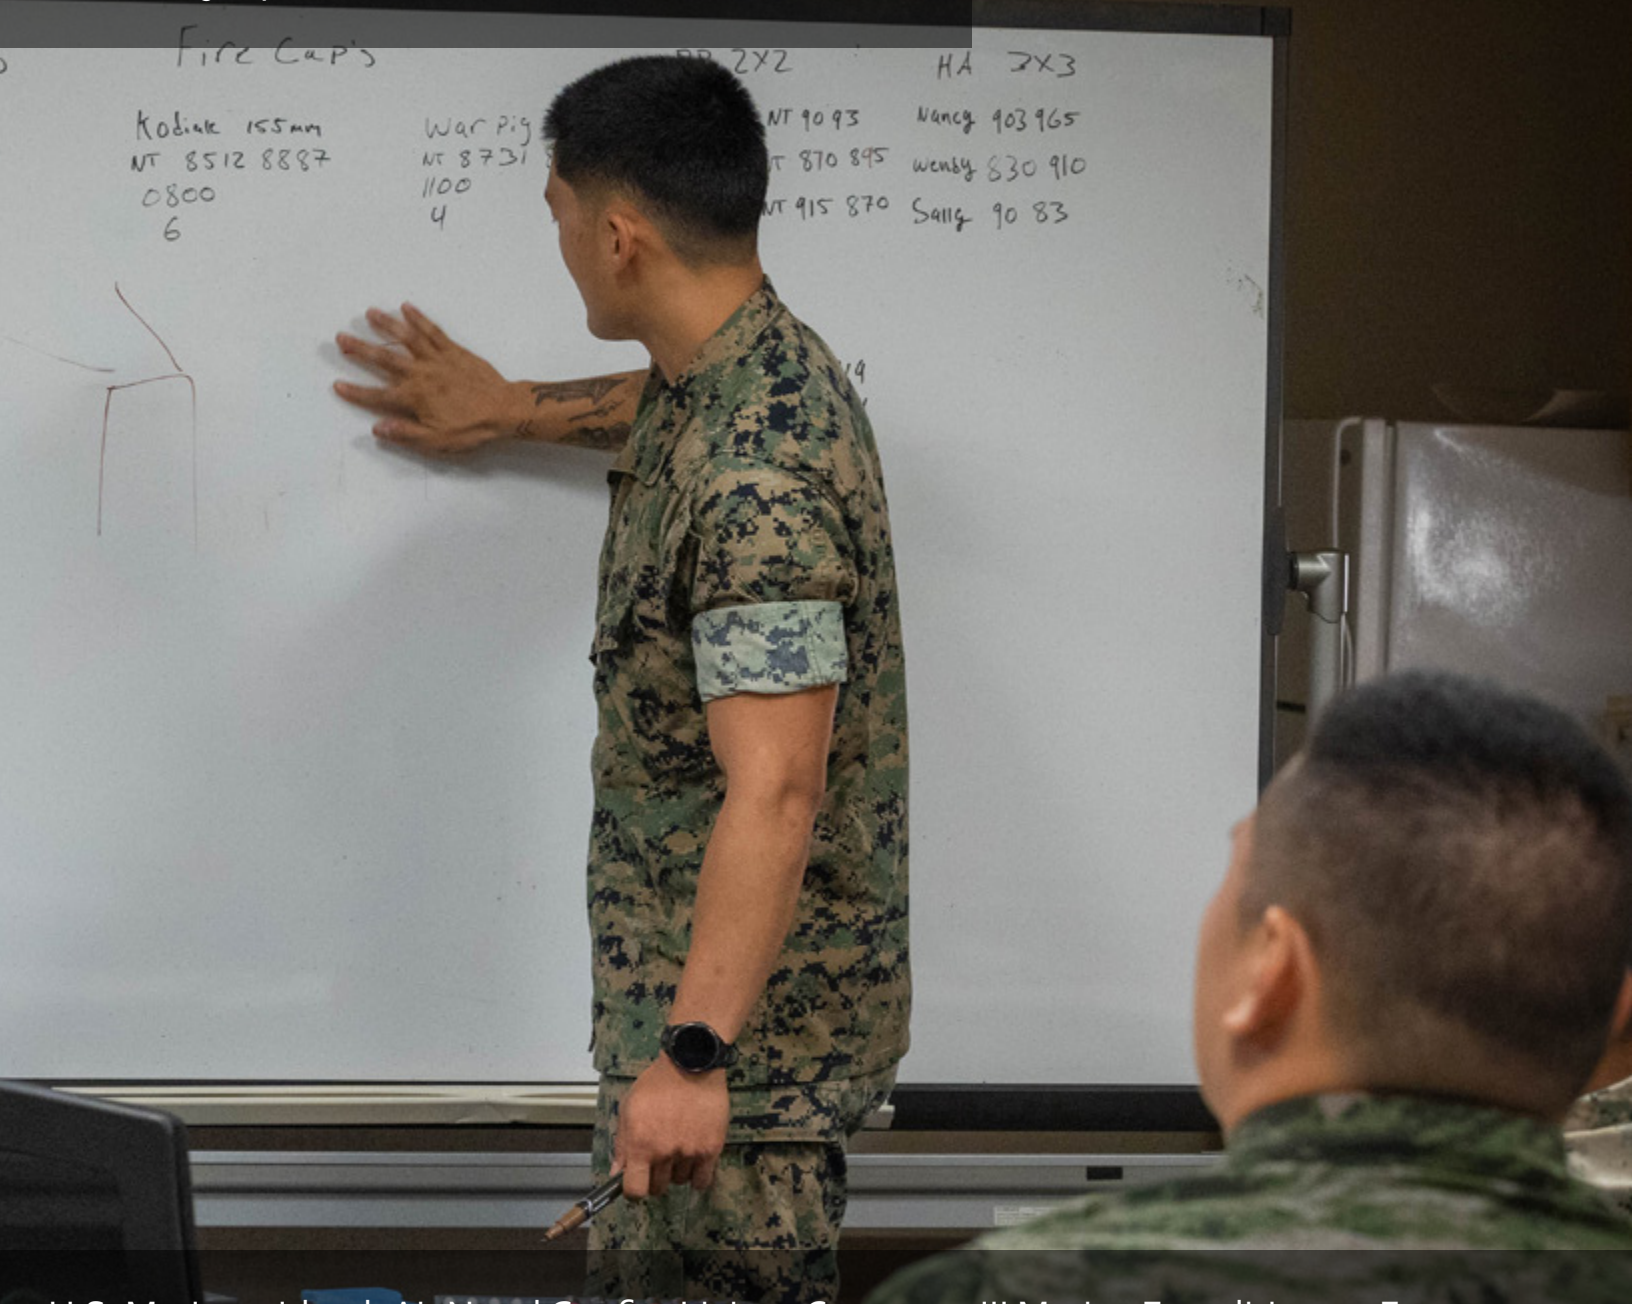

Marines with 5th ANGLICO are trained to innovate with improvised antennas using everyday materials in order to enhance communication resilience and enable the employment of emerging technologies within the Indo-Pacific at Camp Hansen, Japan, July 15, 2025.

Joint Terminal Air Controller Training

Photos by Cpl. Juan Maldonado

U.S. Marine with 5th Air Naval Gunfire Liaison Company, III Marine Expeditionary Force Information Group, briefs Republic of Korea service members during the Korean Marine Exercise Program (KMEP) 25.2 on Osan Air Base, South Korea, July 23, 2025. KMEP is conducted regularly between the ROK and U.S. Marine Corps to increase their combined capabilities through realistic training geared towards deterrence and maintaining peace in the Indo-Pacific.

Close-Quarters Battle Training

Photos by Cpl. Juan Maldonado

U.S. service members conduct close-quarters battle training during the Korean Marine Exercise Program (KMEP) 25.2 on Camp Humphrey, South Korea, July 21, 2025.

Close Air Support Training

Photos by Cpl. Juan Maldonado

U.S. and Republic of Korea Marines participate in close air support drills during the Korean Marine Exercise Program (KMEP) 25.2 in Yesan-gun, South Korea, July 31, 2025.

3d Intel Bn Beach Bash

Photos by LCpl. Dianna Garcia

Marines with 3d Intelligence Battalion held a beach bash at Torii Station, Okinawa, Japan, July 18, 2025 to build comradery amongst the Marines.

III MSB Change of Command

Photos by Cpl. Michael Taggart

U.S. Marine Corps Lt. Col. Kieran O'Neil, right, the outgoing commanding officer of III Marine Expeditionary Force Support Battalion (MSB), III MEF Information Group, hands the unit guidon to Lt. Col. Michael Gangemella, left, the oncoming commanding officer of III MSB during a change of command ceremony on Camp Hansen, Okinawa, Japan, July 15, 2025. The change of command ceremony is a Marine Corps tradition which honors the outgoing commanding officer's effort and dedication, while also recognizing the oncoming commanding officer's commitment to the unit.

UNTIL THE NEXT
RADIO CHECK:

KEEP CHARGING MARINES, YOU ARE THE STANDARD!

ROMIN REPORT